

If we weren't sure media consolidation would hurt the democratic process before Sinclair strong-armed their stations to show the smear-Kerry film right before a crucial election, we certainly have proof now.

You must stop them. If you don't, it will be clear you've become part of the problem.